

I would strongly suggest leaving the telephone privacy act alone but would also suggest it be expanded to cover unwanted calls from politicians running for political office and should be expanded to cover unwanted spam coming thru emails you folks need to spend your time regulating the companies making these harrassing unwanted phone calls and not the people wanted to eliminate them from the dinner table Who pays your salaries? your tax payers do not corporate america GET WITH IT!